

debate shall be limited<sup>325</sup> to one hour, to be equally divided between, and controlled by, the majority leader and minority leader or their designees, and the time on any debatable motion or appeal shall be limited<sup>326</sup> to twenty minutes, to be equally divided between, and controlled by, the mover and the manager of the resolution. In the event the manager of the resolution is in favor of any such motion or appeal, the time in opposition thereto shall be controlled by the minority leader or his designee. Such leaders, or either of them, may, from the time under their control on the passage of such resolution, allot additional time to any Senator during the consideration of any debatable motion or appeal. No amendment to the resolution is in order.<sup>327</sup>

§ 303(c)(3)

(3) If, after the Committee on the Budget has reported (or been discharged from further consideration of) the resolution, the Senate agrees to the resolution, then subsection (a)<sup>328</sup> shall not apply with respect to the bill or resolution (or amendment thereto) to which the resolution so agreed to applies.

<sup>325</sup> Contrast the case under a motion to waive pursuant to section 904(b), where Senators may debate without a time limit. See infra note 960.

<sup>326</sup> Contrast the cases for appeals generally under section 904(d) (see infra pp. 366-368), and for appeals during consideration of budget resolutions and reconciliation legislation under section 305(b)(2) (see infra pp. 124-136), where Senators may debate for one hour.

<sup>327</sup> Congressional Budget Act prohibitions are not self-enforcing, and require points of order from the floor for their enforcement. Cf. supra note 293 (regarding section 303(a)).

Cf. 131 CONG. REC. S4503-04 (1985); Senate Precedent PRL19850422-002 (Apr. 22, 1985) (LEGIS, Rules database) (When the Senate suspends the rules and thereby calls up an amendment to a measure which the provisions of public law provide is unamendable (under Public Law 98-473, for military or paramilitary assistance to the contra forces in Nicaragua), the amendment need not be germane to the measure.).
