Contingent Expenses, United States Consulates—

For expenses of providing all such stationery, blanks, record and other books, seals, presses, flags, signs, rent (so much as may be necessary), repairs, including minor alterations, supervision, preservation, and maintenance of Government-owned consular properties in foreign countries, and properties acquired under the act approved May 7, 1926 [Forty-fourth Statutes at Large, page 403], (U. S. C., Supp. I, p. 114, sec. 291) and including also custodial service, heat, light, water, materials, supplies, tools, seeds, plants, shrubs, and similar objects, postage, furniture, household furniture and furnishings not to exceed $10,000, typewriters and exchange of same, statistics, newspapers, freight (foreign and domestic), telegrams, advertising, ice and drinking water for office purposes, hire of motor-propelled or horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles, and purchase, maintenance, operation, and hire of other passenger-carrying vehicles, uniforms, messenger service, traveling expenses of Consular and Foreign Service officers, including attendance at trade and other conferences or congresses under orders of the Secretary of State as authorized by section 14 of the act approved May 24, 1924 (U. S. C., p. 643, sec. 16) compensation of interpreters, kavasses, guards, dragomans, translators, and Chinese writers, loss by exchange, and such other miscellaneous expenses as the President may think necessary for the several consulates and consular agencies in the transaction of their business and payment in advance of subscriptions for newspapers (foreign and domestic), rent, telephone, and other similar services under this appropriation are hereby authorized (U. S. C., p. 650, sec. 129; act Feb. 15, 1928, vol. 45, p. 67) | 1,063,000.00 | 1,035,000.00 |

The Secretary of State may lease or rent, for periods not exceeding ten years, such buildings and grounds for offices for the Foreign Service as may be necessary; and he may, in accordance with existing practice without cost to them, and within the limit of any appropriation made by Congress, continue to furnish the chief diplomatic representatives and their minor employees in foreign countries, and officers and employees in the Foreign Service in China, Japan, and Turkey with living quarters, heat, light, and household equipment in Government-owned buildings, and in buildings rented for use as offices at places where, in his judgment, it would be in the public interest to do so, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1765 of the Revised Statutes, and appropriations for "Contingent expenses, foreign missions," and "Contingent expenses, consulates," are hereby made available for such purposes; and he is also authorized, in his discretion, to furnish living quarters in such buildings to other officers and employees not herein provided for, at rates to be determined by him (U. S. C., p. 1952, sec. 291; act Feb. 15, 1928, vol. 45, p. 67).

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929
Salaries and Expenses, General Supply Committee—
General Supply Committee: For personal services in the District of Columbia [in accordance with the classification act of 1923] not exceeding [$113,000] $123,260; necessary expenses, including one 5-ton truck, office supplies and materials, maintenance of motor trucks, telegrams, telephone service, traveling expenses, office equipment, fuel, light, electric current, and other necessary expenses for carrying into effect the Executive order of December 3, 1918, regulating the transfer of office materials, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities; in all [$118,000] $133,260: Provided, That the said Executive order shall continue in effect until June 30, [1929] 1930, without modification, except that the price charged shall be the current market value at time of issue, less a discount for usage, but in no instance shall the discount be more than 25 per centum, and that the proceeds from the transfer of appropriations thereunder shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts: Provided further, That the heads of the executive departments and independent establishments and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cooperate with the Secretary of the Treasury in connection with the storage and delivery of materials, supplies, and equipment transferred under the foregoing order and for effecting the transfer or disposition of other surplus and waste material or supplies: Provided further, That typewriters and computing machines transferred to the General Supply Committee as surplus, where such machines have become unfit for further use, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be issued to other Government departments and establishments at exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies or sold commercially.
Repairs to typewriting machines (except bookkeeping and billing machines) in the Government service in the District of Columbia may be made at cost by the General Supply Committee, payment therefor to be effected by transfer and counterwarrant, charging the proper appropriation and crediting the appropriation "Salaries and expenses, General Supply Committee."
No part of any money appropriated by this or any other act shall be used during the fiscal year [1929] 1930 for the purchase of any standard typewriting machines, except bookkeeping and billing machines, at a price in excess of the following for models with carriages which will accommodate paper of the following widths, to wit: Ten inches (correspondence models), $70; twelve inches, $75; fourteen inches, $77.50; sixteen inches, $82.50; eighteen inches, $87.50; twenty inches, $94; twenty-two inches, $95; twenty-four inches, $97.50; twenty-six inches, $103.50; twenty-eight inches, $104; thirty inches, $105; thirty-two inches, $107.50.
All purchases of typewriting machines during the fiscal year [1929] 1930 by executive departments and independent establishments for use in the District of Columbia or in the field, except as hereinafter provided, shall be made from the surplus machines in the stock of the General Supply Committee. If the General Supply Committee is unable to furnish serviceable machines to any such service of the Government, it shall furnish unserviceable machines, if available, at current exchange prices, and such machines shall then be applied by the service of the Government receiving them as part payment for new machines from commercial sources in accordance with the prices fixed in the preceding paragraph. And in selling typewriting machines to the various services the General Supply Committee may accept an equal number of unserviceable machines as part payment thereon at the exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies (act Mar. 5, 1928, vol. 45, p. 164)	$133,260.00	[1] $118,000.00

Cumulative Sinking Fund—
SEC. 6. (a) That there is hereby created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under the first Liberty bond act, the second Liberty bond act, the third Liberty bond act, the fourth Liberty bond act, or under this act, and outstanding on July 1, 1920. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe; and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1920, and for each fiscal year thereafter, until all such bonds and notes are retired, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1) 2½ per cent of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years.
That subdivision (a) of section 6 of the Victory Liberty loan act is amended by inserting before the period at the end of the first sentence a comma and the following words: "and of bonds and notes thereafter issued, under any of such acts or under any of such acts as amended, for refunding purposes" (*U. Maintenance of Channel, South Pass, Mississippi River—

The act of Congress approved June 6, 1900 (U. S. C., p. 1083, sec. 602), provides that the Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to terminate the contract heretofore entered into with the late James B. Eads, for the maintenance of the channel through the South Pass of the Mississippi River, in pursuance of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1875 (18 Stat., p. 463), * * * and of an act of Congress approved June 19, 1878 (20 Stat., p. 168), * * * and of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1879 (20 Stat., p. 376), * * *. In case of the termination of said contract by virtue of the provisions hereof or by expiration of said contract, the Secretary of War is hereby directed to take charge of said channel, including the jetties, and all auxiliary works connected therewith, and thereafter to maintain with the utmost efficiency said South Pass Channel; and for that purpose he is hereby authorized to draw his warrants from time to time on the Treasurer of the United States, until otherwise provided for by law, for such sums of money as may be necessary, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one year $100,000 * * * (U. S. C., p. 1083, sec. 602)

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929
THE PANAMA CANAL
The limitations on the expenditure of appropriations hereinbefore made in this act shall not apply to the appropriations for the Panama Canal.
For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal and Canal Zone, including the following: Compensation of all officials and employees; foreign and domestic newspapers and periodicals; law books not exceeding $500; textbooks and books of reference; printing and binding, including printing of annual report; rent and personal services in the District of Columbia; purchase or exchange of typewriting, adding, and other machines; purchase or exchange, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled and horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles; claims for damages to vessels passing through the locks of the Panama Canal, as authorized by the Panama Canal act; claims for losses of or damages to property arising from the conduct of authorized business operations; claims for damages to property arising from the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal; acquisition of land and land under water, as authorized in the Panama Canal act; expenses incurred in assembling, assorting, storing, repairing, and selling material, machinery, and equipment heretofore or hereafter purchased or acquired for the construction of the Panama Canal which are unserviceable or no longer needed, to be reimbursed from the proceeds of such sales; expenses incident to conducting hearings and examining estimates for appropriations on the Isthmus; expenses incident to any emergency arising because of calamity by flood, fire, pestilence, or like character not foreseen or otherwise provided for herein; traveling expenses, when prescribed by the Governor of the Panama Canal to persons engaged in field work or traveling on official business; and for such other expenses not in the United States as the Governor of the Panama Canal may deem necessary best to promote the maintenance and operation, sanitation, and civil government of the Panama Canal, all to be expended under the direction of the Governor of the Panama Canal and accounted for as follows (U. S. C., p. 1638, sec. 1305; act Mar. 23, 1928, vol. 45, p. 363).
Maintenance and Operation, Panama Canal—
For maintenance and operation of the Panama Canal; salary of the governor, $10,000; purchase, inspection, delivery, handling, and storing of materials, supplies, and equipment for issue to all departments of the Panama Canal, the Panama Railroad, other branches of the United States Government, and for authorized sales, payment in lump sums of not exceeding the amounts authorized by the injury compensation act approved September 7, 1916 (U. S. C., p. 81, sec. 793), to alien cripples who are now a charge upon the Panama Canal by reason of injuries sustained while employed in the construction of the Panama Canal; in all, [$6,832,000] $8,000,000, including [$250,000] $1,000,000 for [commencing] continuing the construction of a dam across the Chagres River at Alhajuela for the storage of water for use in the maintenance and operation of the Panama Canal, together with a hydroelectric plant, roadways, and such other work as in the judgment of the Governor of the Panama Canal may be necessary, to cost in the aggregate not to exceed $12,000,000, together with all moneys arising from the conduct of business operations authorized by the Panama Canal act (U. S. C., p. 1638, sec. 1305; act Mar. 23, 1928, vol. 45, p. 363)	$8,000,000.00	[1] $6,832,000.00

For divisions indicated by an asterisk (*), amounting to $82,620, the increase is included in the estimated appropriation requirements. But the increase for the other divisions, amounting to $103,440, are not so included, as these increases will be recovered from other sources. On account of interchange of service between departments, this division of the additional expense is not exact but represents as close an estimate as is reasonably practicable.

CHAPTER XIII.—DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to defray the expenses of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, [1929] 1930, any revenue (not including the proportionate share of the United States in any revenue arising as the result of the expenditure of appropriations made for the fiscal year 1924 and prior fiscal years) now required by law to be credited to the District of Columbia and the United States in the same proportion that each contributed to the activity or source from whence such revenue was derived shall be credited wholly to the District of Columbia, and, in addition, $9,000,000 is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be advanced July 1, [1928] 1929, and all the remainder out of the combined revenues of the District of Columbia [and such advances from the Federal Treasury as are authorized in the District of Columbia appropriation act for the fiscal year 1923], namely:

Executive Office, District of Columbia—

For personal services [in accordance with the classification act of 1923, $43,890] $49,160, plus so much as may be necessary to make salary of engineer commissioner [$7,500] $9,000: Provided, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations contained in this act for the payment for personal services in accordance with the classification act of 1923, as amended, the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such act, and in grades in which only one position is allocated the salary of such position shall not exceed the average of the compensation rates for the grade, except that in unusually meritorious cases of one position in a grade advances may be made to rates higher than the average of the compensation rates of the grade, but not more often than once in any fiscal year, and then only to the next higher rate: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service; (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such act; (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade in the same or a different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit; or (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the classification act of 1923, as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law (act May 21, 1928, vol. 45, p. 645) ..... $49,160.00 | [1] $43,890.00

Estimates of appropriations required for the service of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930—Continued

General object (title of appropriation), date of acts, references to Statutes at Large, or to Revised Statutes, and estimated amount required for each detailed object	Total amount to be appropriated under each head of appropriation	Amount appropriated for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929
INDEFINITE APPROPRIATIONS
Refunding Taxes, District of Columbia— For payment of amounts collected by the District erroneously on account of taxes, fines, fees, and similar charges which are returned to the respective parties who may have erroneously paid the same (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 3, 4)	$55,000.00	$50,000.00
Refunding taxes: Expenditures—1930, $55,000; 1929, $50,000; 1928, $60,994.38.
Extension, etc., of Streets and Avenues, District of Columbia— In the various appropriations on account of extension of streets and avenues in the District of Columbia, it has been the practice to make the payment of the amount awarded as damages resulting from condemnation proceedings indefinite, inasmuch as no estimate could be made as to the amount that would be awarded by the jury of condemnation in the several causes (chargeable to the revenues of the District of Columbia) (act Mar. 3, 1899, vol. 30, p. 1345, sec. 6)	500,000.00	175,000.00
Extension, etc., of streets and avenues, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $500,000; 1929, $175,000; 1923, $28,934.31.
SPECIAL AND TRUST FUNDS
Industrial Home School Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from collections made on account of farm and greenhouse products by inmates of said school, and is used for miscellaneous expenses of maintenance, and so forth, on account of that institution (act June 11, 1896, vol. 29, p. 411, sec. 91).
Industrial Home School fund, District of Columbia: Expenditures, 1928, $2,330.76
Escheated Estates Relief Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from proceeds of sale of effects of deceased persons in the District who die leaving no heirs or next of kin, and is expended for the benefit of the poor of the District (act Mar. 3, 1901, vol. 31, p. 1251, sec. 388)	2,500.00	5,000.00
Escheated estates relief fund, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $2,500; 1929, $5,000; 1928, $2,042.64.
Teachers' Retirement Fund Deductions, District of Columbia— Indefinite appropriation of the amounts deducted from the basic salaries of teachers of the public schools of the District of Columbia, to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of an individual account of the teacher from whose salary the deduction is made. The fund thus created to be held and invested until paid out as provided in the acts of Congress in relation thereto (acts Jan. 15, 1920, vol. 41, p. 387, secs. 1, 2; June 5, 1920, vol. 41, p. 852, sec. 1; June 11, 1926, vol. 44, p. 727)	390,000.00	340,000.00
Teachers' retirement fund deductions, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $390,000; 1929, $375,000; 1928, $366,983.24
Miscellaneous Trust-Fund Deposits, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners, corporations, and others on account of work to be performed by the District in connection with cuts in streets, special sewers, and various engineering projects, the whole cost of which is payable by the depositor; there are also carried in this account several bequests for the benefit of certain charitable and religious institutions, and as a fund to provide awards for prizes for excellence in school work (act Apr. 27, 1904, vol. 33, p. 368, sec. 1)	825,000.00	950,000.00
Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $825,000; 1929, $850,000; 1928, $889,609.56.
Washington Redemption Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from the collections on account of payments made by persons redeeming their property which has been previously sold for taxes; payments from this fund are made to the various holders of certificates representing purchases of such unpaid taxes (act June 11, 1878, vol. 20, pp. 102–108, secs. 1–15)	550,000.00	500,000.00
Washington redemption fund, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $550,000; 1929, $550,000; 1928, $731,245.79.
Permit Fund, District of Columbia— This fund is derived from deposits made by property owners for various improvements, sewers, etc., of which the half cost is paid by said owner (act Aug. 7, 1894, vol. 28, p. 247, sec. 1)	55,000.00	50,000.00
Permit fund, District of Columbia: Expenditures—1930, $55,000; 1929, $50,000; 1928, $56,708.98.

SEC. 2. That the services of draftsmen, assistant engineers, levelers, transitmen, rodmen, chainmen, computers, copyists, overseers, and inspectors temporarily required in connection with sewer, street, street-cleaning, or road work, or construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations may be employed exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners, and all such necessary expenditures for the proper execution of said work shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in their Budget estimates shall report the number of such employees performing such services, and their work, and the sums paid to each, and out of what appropriation: Provided, That the expenditures hereunder shall not exceed [$20,000] $22,000 during the fiscal year [1929] 1930: Provided further, That, excluding five inspectors in the sewer department, no person shall be employed in pursuance of the authority contained in this paragraph for a longer period than nine months in the aggregate during the fiscal year.

The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics as may be required exclusively in connection with sewer, street, and road work, and street cleaning, or the construction and repair of buildings and bridges, furniture and equipments, and any general or special engineering or construction or repair work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, drivers, hostlers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriations under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred.

SEC. 3. That all horses, harness, horse-drawn vehicles necessary for use in connection with construction and supervision of sewer, street, street lighting, road work, and street-cleaning work, including maintenance of said horses and harness, and maintenance and repair of said vehicles, and purchase of all necessary articles and supplies in connection therewith, or on construction and repair of buildings and bridges, or any general or special engineering or construction work authorized by appropriations, may be purchased, hired, and maintained and motor trucks may be hired exclusively to carry into effect said appropriations, when specifically and in writing ordered by the commissioners; and all such expenditures necessary for the proper execution of said work, exclusive of personal services, shall be paid from and equitably charged against the sums appropriated for said work; and the commissioners in the Budget estimates shall report the number of horses, vehicles, and harness purchased, and horses and vehicles hired, and the sums paid for same, and out of what appropriation; and all horses owned or maintained by the District shall, so far as may be practicable, be provided for in stables owned or operated by said District: Provided, That such horses, horse-drawn vehicles, and carts as may be temporarily needed for hauling and excavating material in connection with works authorized by appropriations may be temporarily employed for such purposes under the conditions named in section 2 of this act in relation to the employment of laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics. SEC. 4. The commissioners are further authorized to employ temporarily such laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics as may be required in connection with water-department work, and to incur all necessary engineering and other expenses, exclusive of personal services, incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, said laborers, skilled laborers, and mechanics to be employed to perform such work as may not be required by existing law to be done under contract, and to pay for such services and expenses from the appropriation under which such services are rendered and expenses incurred. SEC. 5. That the commissioners are authorized to employ in the execution of work the cost of which is payable from the appropriation account created in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act (approved April 27, 1904), and known as the "Miscellaneous trust-fund deposits, District of Columbia," all necessary inspectors, overseers, foremen, sewer tappers, skilled laborers, mechanics, laborers, special policemen stationed at street-railway crossings, one inspector of gas fittings, two janitors for laboratories of the Washington and Georgetown Gas Light Companies, market master, assistant market master, watchman, two bookkeepers in the auditor's office, clerk in the office of the collector of taxes, horses, carts, and wagons, and to hire therefor motor trucks when specifically and in writing authorized by the commissioners, and to incur all necessary expenses incidental to carrying on such work and necessary for the proper execution thereof, including the [purchase of one passenger-carrying motor vehicle at a cost not to exceed $475,] purchase, exchange, maintenance, and operation of motor vehicles for inspection and transportation purposes, such services and expenses to be paid from said appropriation account. Any person employed under any of the provisions of this act who has been employed for ten consecutive months or more shall not be denied the leave of absence with pay for which the law provides. SEC. 6. That the commissioners and other responsible officials, in expending appropriations contained in this act, so far as possible shall purchase material, supplies, including food supplies and equipment when needed and funds are available, in accordance with the regulations and schedules of the General Supply Committee or from the various services of the Government of the United States possessing material, supplies, passenger-carrying and other motor vehicles, and equipment no longer required because of the cessation of war activities. Surplus articles purchased from the Government, if the same have not been used, shall be paid for at a reasonable price, not to exceed actual cost, and if the same have been used, at a reasonable price based upon length of usage. The various services of the Government of the United States are authorized to sell such surplus articles to the municipal government under the conditions specified, and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to amend, alter, or repeal the Executive order of December 3, 1918, concerning the transfer of office materials, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities.
